RESEARCH

External Outside Research Studies

One of the goals of Multiples of America is to cooperate with and participate in research projects which involve multiples and/or their families. Researchers actively recruit Multiples of America members to participate in studies, and we encourage your participation! Find out more about these studies on the Research page on our website. Additional information about research studies is published in our e-newsmagazine, Multiple Connections.

Internal Surveys

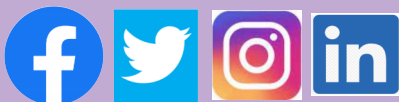

Multiples of America's Membership and Research Development Department has its own survey team committed to writing, interpreting and reporting surveys for our members. Results from these surveys will help us, researchers and the public, better understand our multiples, our clubs, and ourselves.

International Connections

Multiples of America is an active member of the International Society for Twin Studies (ISTS). This forum provides our organization an International connection to researchers and multiple birth organizations around the world.

Your Multiples and You

One of our most helpful resources pertaining to preparing for multiples, new parenting, feeding multiples, etc. It is available as a free download on our website.

Benefit from our Experience...

Multiples of America was created by a group of mothers of multiples in the Midwest who saw a need to bring together parents and provide them with the resources, tools and education to effectively parent their children. Their intent was to harness the reach of a national organization, to introduce resources and share knowledge with local groups. The founders of Multiples of America bestowed on us a rich legacy of knowledge, caring and support.

Additional Multiple Birth Resources...

Multiple Connections is our bi-monthly, electronic news magazine emailed to every member.

Informational booklets and flyers on topics including Higher Order Multiples, Single Parenting, Special Needs parenting, Bereavement and more are also offered by Multiples of America.

Education of Multiple Birth Children is a resource for parents and educators alike. For parents of preschool and school-age multiples, as well as educators concerned with placement of multiple birth children in school. Topics covered include whether or not to separate, learning disabilities and much more.

Multiples of America has offered resources, support and connections to parents of multiples across the country for over sixty years. Isn't it time for you and your local club to experience the benefits of Multiples of America?

Multiples of America's Funding

A non-profit 501(c)3 corporation funded by dues, donations and grants. As a member club, your club can receive benefits of 501(c)(3) status through Multiples of America. The IRS will recognize your club as a subordinate chapter of Multiples of America with assignment of a Group Exemption Number (GEN). This provides your club many benefits, including the ability to receive donations which are tax deductible by donors. For clubs with gross receipts of less than $25K, we will file your 990-N e-postcard.
