Powerful Partnerships

As a parent, friend, or club member, we all recognize there are times when we can't do it all. That's when the power of a partnership is essential! This Zoom Connect focuses on that power.

We did a quick review of all the services and resources available to you and your club members through our Multiples of America partners, including:

American Pregnancy Association
Fetal Health Foundation
Graham's Foundation
Lily's Hope Foundation
National Perinatal Association

NICU Awareness (Project Sweet Peas)
The Skylar Project
The Superhero Project, Inc.
The TAPS Support Foundation

Stephanie Ernst, the TAPS Support Foundation, and Kelly Gallagher, the Superhero Project, Inc. shared information about their journeys as parents of multiples and the work of their foundations.

A few details about the work of The TAPS Support Foundation

- They provide research and support to expectant mothers of twins facing a complicated fetal diagnosis.
- They provide a TAPS support pocket guide for parents to give to medical professionals.
- They offer free webinars about the long-term outcomes of TAPS.

A few specifics about the work of The Superhero Project, Inc.

- Their programs are focused on bridging the gap between hospital and home.
- They have worked to help place Angel Eye technology into NICUs in many hospitals across the nation.
- Support programs include: PJs with a Smile, NICU Graduation Day, Superhero Baby Shower, Lullabies of Love, Ohana Program, Unsung Hero Scholarships
