

Want to Join In?

Leadership Academy Brings Members Together to Learn About Guiding, Growing Clubs

*By: Mary Prigel Adcock
President*

Stepping up to be a board member or committee chair can be an adventure. It offers a chance to share talents, stretch skills, and make new friends.

Of course, leadership can also be overwhelming. There are times when meetings or events don't go as planned. There are moments when discussions lead to disagreements. There are days when deadlines coincide with family events, turning life into a juggling act.

Multiples of America's Leadership Academy can help. The aim of our academy is to build a core of next generation leaders for local clubs, state groups, and our national organization.

Who can apply?

Club leaders, state board members, National Workers, or members who have an interest in leadership: All can join us on this journey of learning & discovery. Find the quick application online in the Members Only section.

What is required?

Over the span of a year, you'll have the chance to:

- Join in four virtual learning events focused on leadership and club issues
- Gain leadership skills and knowledge through an email book study.
- Join in discussions on Facebook around club leadership and management issues.
- Celebrate with the Academy class during a graduation ceremony at our Annual Convention. (Participation in at least 75% of the virtual sessions is required to graduate; convention attendance is not required.)

What's the focus?

We'll cover topics about leadership including:

- Finding your leadership style
- Being mission-driven
- Building relationships
- Fostering collaboration

And we'll take a look into club operations with these and other topics:

- Member recruitment
- Volunteer recruitment
- Fundraising
- Club challenges
- Robert's Rules of Order
- Leading effective business meetings

How much does it cost?

The Academy is a benefit of membership. There is no fee to apply & be a part of the connecting & learning.

Submit your application in the Members Only section by November 1.

The most incredible things are possible, let's paint that picture together...