Learning During the Young Years

The pathway to learning the ABCs and 123s starts at home. Our March Great Expectations Seminar, “Learning Through the Early Years,” provides tips and takeaways to help in that journey!

Topics covered include:

- Play
- Language Development
- Math Readiness
- Reading Readiness

Kim Simonich, expert educator and mother of twins, leads the seminar. Kim has a BA in Early Childhood Education and a MS in Reading. She taught kindergarten for 13 years, provided general reading support for Kindergarten through fourth grade for nine years, and worked as a specialized reading support teacher for dyslexic students in grades 5-8 for 13 years. Work she continues to this day, as well as serving as a private reading tutor for 12 years. Kim is also a certified Orton-Gillingham practitioner and has a graduate certificate in Dyslexia and Language-Based Learning.

This Great Expectations seminar was held March 26, 2026.
